The President drew attention to the text of a draft resolution (S/1994/723) that had been prepared in the course of the Council's prior consultations, and made an oral revision to draft resolution S/1994/723 in its provisional form.

The Security Council then proceeded to vote on draft resolution S/1994/723, as orally revised in its provisional form, and adopted it unanimously as resolution 928 (1994) (for the full text, see S/RES/928 (1994); to be issued in Official Records of the Security Council, Forty-ninth Year, Resolutions and decisions of the Security Council, 1994).

By a letter dated 21 June 1994 addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/1994/738), the Permanent Representative of France to the United Nations requested, under rule 2 of the provisional rules of procedure of the Security Council, a formal meeting of the Council immediately following the informal consultations scheduled for 22 June 1994, in order to put to the vote a draft resolution (S/1994/737) on the situation in Rwanda.

The Security Council resumed its consideration of the item at its 3392nd meeting, held on 22 June 1994, in accordance with the above request and in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, having before it the letter dated 19 June 1994 from the Secretary-General addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/1994/728).
